- V. Payment of revenue was made generally in cash.

Mansabdari System

- Akbar introduced the Mansabdari system in his administration
- Under this system every officer was assigned a rank (mansab)
- Lowest rank was 10 and the highest was 5000 for the nobles
- Princes of royal blood received even higher ranks.
- The ranks were divided into two – zat and sawar.
- Zat means personal and it fixed the personal status of a person.
- Sawar rank indicated the number of cavalymen of a person who was required to maintain
- Every sawar had to maintain at least two horses
- All appointments and promotions as well as dismissals were directly made by the emperor.

Jahangir (1605-1627)

1. When Akbar died, Prince Salim succeeded with the title Jahangir (Conqueror of World) in 1605.
2. Son Khusrau revolted but was defeated and imprisoned.
3. One of his supporters, Guru Arjun, the fifth Sikh Guru, was beheaded.

Nur Jahan

1. In 1611, Jahangir married Mehrunnisa who was known as Nur Jahan (Light of World).
2. Nur Jahan's elder brother Asaf Khan was appointed as Khan-i-Saman, a post reserved for the nobles.
3. In 1612, Asaf Khan's daughter, Arjumand Banu Begum (later known as Mumtaz), married Jahangir's third son, prince Khurram (later Shah Jahan).

Shah Jahan (1627-1658)

1. Shah Jahan launched a prolonged campaign in the northwest frontier to recover Kandahar and other ancestral lands.
2. His Deccan policy was more successful.
3. He defeated the forces of Ahmadnagar and annexed it
4. Both Bijapur and Golkonda signed a treaty with the emperor
5. Shah Jahan carved four Mughal provinces in the Deccan – Khandesh, Berar, Telungana and Daulatabad

War of Succession

- ❖ The last years of Shah Jahan's reign were clouded by a bitter war of succession among his four sons
- ❖ Dara Shikoh (crown prince)
- ❖ Shuja (governor of Bengal)
- ❖ Aurangzeb (governor of Deccan)
- ❖ Murad Baksh (governor of Malwa and Gujarat)
- ❖ Aurangzeb emerged victorious in this struggle
- ❖ He entered the Agra fort after defeating Dara
- ❖ He forced Shah Jahan to surrender

- ❖ Shah Jahan was confined to the female apartments in the Agra fort and strictly put under vigil
- ❖ But he was not ill-treated.
- ❖ Shah Jahan lived for eight long years lovingly nursed by his daughter Jahanara

Aurangazeb (1658-1707)

- Aurangazeb was one of the ablest of the Mughal kings
- He assumed the title Alamgir, World Conqueror.
- His military campaigns in his first ten years of reign were a great success.
- He faced serious difficulties in the latter part of his reign.
- The Jats and Satnamis and also the Sikhs revolted against him.
- These revolts were induced by his harsh religious policy
- The Deccan policy of the Mughals started from the reign of Akbar,
- Aurangazeb, as governor of Deccan, followed an aggressive Deccan policy.
- When he became the Mughal emperor for the first twenty five years, he concentrated on the northwest frontier
- At that time, the Maratha ruler, Sivaji carved out an independent Maratha kingdom in the territories of north and south Konkan
- To contain the spread of the Marathas, Aurangazeb decided to invade Bijapur and Golkonda.
- He defeated Sikandar Shah of Bijapur and annexed his kingdom.
- Then, he proceeded against Golkonda and eliminated the Kutb Shahi dynasty.
- The destruction of the Deccan kingdoms was a political blunder on the part of Aurangazeb.
- The barrier between the Mughals and the Marathas was removed and there ensued a direct confrontation between them.
- According to J.N. Sarkar, the Deccan ulcer ruined Aurangazeb.

Religious Policy

- ❖ His ideal was to transform India into an Islamic state.
- ❖ He created a separate department to enforce moral codes under a high-powered officer called
 - Muhtasib.
- ❖ Drinking was prohibited. Cultivation and use of bhang and other drugs were banned
- ❖ Aurangazeb forbade music in the Mughal court
- ❖ He discontinued the practice of Jarokhadarshan
- ❖ He also discontinued the celebration of Dasarah and royal astronomers and astrologers were also dismissed from service
- ❖ When he began a policy of destroying Hindu temples.
- ❖ The celebrated temples at Mathura and Benares were reduced to ruins.
- ❖ In 1679, he reimposed jiziya and pilgrim tax.
- ❖ The celebration of Muharram was stopped
- ❖ His invasions against the Deccan sultanates were partly due to his hatred of the Shia faith
- ❖ He was also against the Sikhs and he executed the ninth Sikh Guru Tej Bahadur.
- ❖ His religious policy was responsible for turning the Rajputs, the Marathas and Sikhs into the enemies of Mughal Empire
- ❖ It had also resulted in the rebellions of the Jats of Mathura and the Satnamis of Mewar.
- ❖ Therefore, Aurangazeb was held responsible for the decline of the Mughal Empire.

Personality and Character of Aurangazeb

- In his private life, Aurangazeb was industrious and disciplined
- He was very simple in food and dress

- He earned money for his personal expenses by copying Quran and selling those copies.
- He did not consume wine.
- He was learned and proficient in Arabic and Persian languages.
- He was devoted to his religion and conducted prayers five times a day.
- He strictly observed the Ramzan fasting.
- He misunderstood the true nature of the Maratha movement and antagonized them
- Also, he failed to solve the Maratha problem and left an open sore
- His policy towards Shia Deccan Sultanates also proved to be a wrong policy.
- His religious policy was also not successful. Aurangzeb was an orthodox Sunni Muslim.
- His antagonistic policies towards non-Muslims did not help him to rally the Muslims to his side.
- On the other hand it had strengthened political enemies of the Mughal Empire

Causes for the Downfall of the Mughals

- ❖ The Mughal Empire declined rapidly after the death of Aurangzeb. The Mughal court became the scene of factions among the nobles.
- ❖ The weakness of the empire was exposed when Nadir Shah imprisoned the Mughal Emperor and looted Delhi in 1739.
- ❖ The religious and Deccan policies of Aurangzeb contributed to its decline.
- ❖ The weak successors and demoralization of the Mughal army also paved the way for it
- ❖ The financial difficulties due to continuous wars led to the decline.
- ❖ The neglect of the sea power by the Mughals was felt when the Europeans began to settle in India.
- ❖ Further, the invasions of Nadir Shah and Ahmad Shah Abdali weakened the Mughal state.

INDIA UNDER THE MUGHALS

Economic and Social Life

- Many European travellers and traders came to India and their accounts contain a mine of information about the socio-economic conditions of India.
- In general, they described the wealth and prosperity of India and also the luxurious life of the aristocratic classes.
- They also mentioned the poverty and sufferings of the ordinary people such as peasants and artisans.

Mughal Nobility

- ❖ The nobles of the Mughal period formed a privileged class. Most of them were foreigners such as
 - Turks and Afghans
- ❖ The Mughal nobles were paid high salaries but their expenses were also very high
- ❖ Each noble maintained a large number of servants, horses, elephants, etc.
- ❖ While the wealthy people wore silk and cotton clothes, the poor people wore the minimum cloths.
- ❖ Nikitin observed that the people of Deccan were bare-footed. It might be due to high cost of leather.
- ❖ Rice, millets and pulses were the staple food of the common people
- ❖ Fish was popular on the coastal region
- ❖ While ghee and oil were cheaper, salt and sugar were more expensive, milk and milk products

were available in plenty

Agriculture

- ❖ An estimate claims that the population of India at the beginning of the seventeenth century was about 125 million.
- ❖ A large variety of crops such as wheat, rice, gram, barley, pulses were cultivated.
- ❖ Commercial crops such as cotton, indigo, sugarcane and oil-seeds were also cultivated.
- ❖ During the seventeenth century two new crops, namely, tobacco and maize were added
- ❖ But, no new agricultural technique was introduced during this period
- ❖ India was able to export food items like rice and sugar to the neighbouring countries

Growth of Trade

- ❖ The Indian trading classes were large in numbers and spread throughout the country.
- ❖ Seth, bohra traders specialized in long distance trade while local traders were called banik
- ❖ Another class of traders was known as banjaras, who specialized in carrying bulk goods.
- ❖ The banjaras used to move to long distances with their goods on the back of oxen
- ❖ Bulk goods were also taken through rivers on boats.
- ❖ The Gujarati merchants included the Hindus, Jains and Muslims. In Rajasthan, Oswals, Maheshwaris and Agarwals came to be called the Marwaris
- ❖ In south India, the Chettis on the Coramandal coast and the Muslim merchants of Malabar were the most important trading communities.
- ❖ Bengal exported sugar, rice as well as delicate muslin and silk.
- ❖ Gujarat was an entry point of foreign goods. From there, fine textiles and silk were taken to north India.
- ❖ The major imports into India were certain metals such as tin and copper, war horses and luxury items such as ivory.
- ❖ The balance of trade was maintained by the import of gold and silver.
- ❖ The growth of foreign trade had resulted in the increased import of gold and silver in the seventeenth century.

Cultural Development under the Mughals

- ❖ The Mughal period witnessed a significant and widespread development in cultural activity.
- ❖ It was manifest in the sphere of art and architecture, painting, music and literature.
- ❖ Indian traditions were blended with Turko-Iranian culture which was brought into India by the Mughals.

Art and Architecture

- ❖ The Mughals were fond of laying gardens with running water.
- ❖ Some of the Mughal gardens such as the Nishat Bagh in Kashmir, the Shalimar Bagh at Lahore and the Pinjore garden in the Punjab have survived even today.
- ❖ During the reign of Sher Shah, the mausoleum at Sasaram in Bihar and the Purana Qila near Delhi were built.
- ❖ Large scale construction of buildings started with the advent of Akbar
- ❖ He built many forts and the most famous one was the Agra Fort.
- ❖ It was built in red sandstone
- ❖ His other forts are at Lahore and Allahabad
- ❖ The climax of fort-building reached its climax during the reign of Shah Jahan.
- ❖ The famous Red Fort at Delhi with its Rang Mahal, Diwan-i-Am and Diwan-i-Khas was his creation

- ❖ Akbar also built a palacecum-fort complex at Fatepur Sikri (City of Victory), 36 kilometres from Agra.
- ❖ Many buildings in Gujarati and Bengali styles are found in this complex.
- ❖ Gujarati style buildings were probably built for his Rajput wives.
- ❖ The most magnificent building in it is the Jama Masjid and the gateway to it called Buland Darwaza or the Lofty Gate.
- ❖ The height of the gateway is 176 feet. It was built to commemorate Akbar's victory over Gujarat.
- ❖ Other important buildings at Fatepur Sikri are Jodh Bai's palace and Panch Mahal with five storeys.
- ❖ During Akbar's reign, the Humayun's tomb was built at Delhi and it had a massive dome of marble.
- ❖ It may be considered the precursor of the Taj Mahal.
- ❖ Akbar's tomb at Sikandara near Agra was completed by Jahangir.
- ❖ Nur Jahan built the tomb of Itimaddaulah at Agra.
- ❖ It was constructed wholly of white marble with floral designs made of semi-precious stones on the walls. (Pietra dura)
- ❖ This method became more popular during the reign of Shah Jahan.
- ❖ The pietra dura method was used on a large scale in the Taj Mahal
- ❖ Taj Mahal is considered as jewel of the builder's art.
- ❖ It contains all the architectural forms developed by the Mughals.
- ❖ The chief glory of the Taj is the massive dome and the four slender minarets
- ❖ The decorations are kept to the minimum.
- ❖ The Moti Masjid at Agra was built entirely in white marble. The Jama Masjid at Delhi was built in red stone.
- ❖ Many features of Mughal tradition can be seen in the Golden Temple at Amritsar.

Paintings and Music

- ❖ The foundation for the Mughal painting was laid by Humayun when he was staying in Persia
- ❖ He brought with him two painters – Mir Sayyid Ali and Abdal Samad to India.
- ❖ Akbar commissioned the illustrations of several literary and religious texts
- ❖ He invited a large number of painters from different parts of the country to his court.
- ❖ Both Hindus and Muslims joined in this work.
- ❖ Baswan, Miskina and Daswant attained great positions as Akabar's court artists
- ❖ Illustrations of Persian versions of Mahabharata and Ramayana were produced in miniature form.
- ❖ Art Studio established by Akbar. Historical works such as Akbar Nama also remained the main themes of Mughal paintings
- ❖ Mughal paintings reached its climax during the reign of Jahangir.
- ❖ He employed a number of painters like Abul Hasan, Bishan Das, Madhu, Anant, Manohar, Govardhan and Ustad Mansur
- ❖ Music had also developed under the Mughals.
- ❖ Akbar patronized Tansen of Gwalior.
- ❖ Tansen composed many ragas. Jahangir and Shah Jahan were also fond of music

Language and Literature

- ❖ Persian language became widespread in the Mughal Empire by the time of Akbar's reign.
- ❖ Many historical works were written during this period.
- ❖ They include Ain-i-Akbari and Akabar Nama authored by Abul Fazl.

- ❖ The leading poet of that period was his brother Abul Faizi.
- ❖ The translation of Mahabharata into the Persian language was done under his supervision.
- ❖ Utbi and Naziri were the two other leading Persian poets
- ❖ Jahangir's autobiography, Tuzuk-i-Jahangiri was famous for its style
- ❖ He also patronized many scholars like Ghiyas Beg, Naqib Khan and Niamatullah
- ❖ Shah Jahan also patronized many writers and historians like Abdul Hamid Lahori, author of Padshah Nama and Inayat Khan who wrote Shah Jahan Nama.
- ❖ His son Dara Shikoh translated the Bhagavat Gita and Upanishads into the Persian language
- ❖ Regional languages such as Bengali, Oriya, Rajasthani and Gujarati had also developed during this period.
- ❖ Many devotional works including the Ramayana and Mahabharata were translated into regional languages.
- ❖ The most influential Hindi poet was Tulsidas, who wrote the Hindi version of the Ramayana, the Ramcharitmanas.

THE MARATHAS

The Rise of the Marathas

- ✓ Various factors contributed to the rise of Marathas in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries
- ✓ The physical environment of the Maratha country shaped certain peculiar qualities among the Marathas.
- ✓ The mountainous region and dense forests made them brave soldiers and adopt guerilla tactics.
- ✓ They built a number of forts on the mountains
- ✓ The spread of the Bhakti movement in Maharashtra inculcated a spirit of religious unity among them
- ✓ The spiritual leaders like Tukaram, Ramdas, Vaman Pandit and Eknath fostered social unity
- ✓ The political unity was conferred by Shivaji. The Marathas held important positions in the administrative and military systems of Deccan Sultanates of Bijapur and Ahmadnagar
- ✓ There were a number of influential Maratha families such as the Mores and Nimbalkers.
- ✓ Credit of establishing a powerful Maratha state goes to Shahji Bhonsle and his son Shivaji

Shivaji (1627-1680)

His Life and Conquest

- Shivaji was born at Shivner in 1627. His father was Shahji Bhonsle and mother Jija Bai.
- He inherited the jagir of Poona from his father in 1637.
- After the death of his guardian, Dadaji Kondadev in 1647, Shivaji assumed full charge of his jagir.
- He captured Javli from a Maratha chief, Chanda Rao More. This made him the master of Mavala region.
- In 1657, he attacked the Bijapur kingdom and captured a number of hill forts in the Konkan region
- The Sultan of Bijapur sent Afzal Khan against Shivaji. But Afzal Khan was murdered by Shivaji in 1659 in a daring manner. Shivaji suffered a defeat at the hands of the Mughal forces and lost Poona
- But Shivaji once again made a bold attack on Shaista Khan's (Mughal governor of Deccan) military camp at Poona in 1663, killed his son and wounded Khan.
- This time Aurangzeb sent Raja Jai Singh of Amber to fight against Shivaji.
- He made elaborate preparations and succeeded in besieging the Purander fort where Shivaji

RAJESH NAYAK

lodged his family and treasure

- Shivaji opened negotiations with Jai Singh and the Treaty of Purander was signed in 1665.
- According to the treaty, Shivaji had to surrender 23 forts to the Mughals out of 35 forts held by him.
- The remaining 12 forts were to be left to Shivaji on condition of service and loyalty to Mughal Empire.
- As Shivaji asked to exempt him from personal service to the Mughals, his minor son Shambaji was granted a mansab of 5000
- Shivaji visited Agra in 1666 but he was imprisoned there. But, he managed to escape from prison and made military preparations for another four years.
- Surat was plundered by him for the second time in 1670
- He also captured all his lost territories by his conquests
- In 1674 Shivaji crowned himself at Raigarh and assumed the title Chatrapathi.
- Then he led an expedition into the Carnatic region and captured Ginjee and Vellore.
- After his return from this expedition, Shivaji died in 1680.

Shivaji's Administration

- He was assisted by a council of ministers called Ashtapradhan
- Peshwa – Finance and general administration. Later he became the prime minister.
- Sar-i-Naubator Senapati – Military commander, an honorary post
- Amatya – Accountant General.
- Wagenavis – Intelligence, posts and household affairs
- Sachiv – Correspondence.
- Sumanta – Master of ceremonies.
- Nyayadish – Justice
- Panditarao – Charities and religious administration
- Most of the administrative reforms of Shivaji were based on the practices of the Deccan sultanates.
- The revenue system of Shivaji was based on that of Malik Amber of Ahmadnagar.
- Lands were measured by using the measuring rod called kathi.
- He reduced the powers of the existing deshmuks and kulkarni
- He appointed his own revenue officials called karkuns.
- Chauth and sardeshmukhi were the taxes collected not in the Maratha kingdom but in the neighbouring territories of the Mughal Empire or Deccan sultanates
- Chauth was one fourth of the land revenue paid to the Marathas in order to avoid the Maratha raids
- Sardeshmukhi was an additional levy of ten percent on those lands which the Marathas claimed hereditary rights
- Shivaji was a man of military genius and his army was well organized
- The regular army consisted of about 30000 to 40000 cavalry supervised by havildars.
- Shivaji also maintained a navy
- The forts played an important role in the military operations of the Marathas
- By the end of his reign, Shivaji had about 240 forts
- Shivaji was really a constructive genius and nation-builder
- His rise from jagirdar to Chatrapathi was spectacular.

Successors of Shivaji

- ❖ There ensued a war of succession after the death of Shivaji between his sons, Shambaji and Rajaram.

- ❖ Shambaji emerged victorious but later he was captured and executed by the Mughals
- ❖ Shambaji emerged victorious but later he was captured and executed by the Mughals
- ❖ . He died at Satara.
- ❖ He was succeeded by his minor son Shivaji II with his mother Tara Bai as regent
- ❖ The next ruler was Shahu in whose reign the Peshwas rose to power

The Peshwas (1713-1818)

1. Balaji Viswanath (1713-1720)
2. Balaji Viswanath began his career as a small revenue official and became Peshwa in 1713
3. As Peshwa, he made his position the most important and powerful as well as hereditary.
4. He played a crucial role in the civil war and finally made Shahu as the Maratha ruler.

Baji Rao I (1720-1740)

- ✓ Baji Rao was the eldest son of Balaji Viswanath
- ✓ He succeeded his father as Peshwa at the age young age of twenty.
- ✓ The Maratha power reached its zenith under him.
- ✓ He initiated the system of confederacy among the Maratha chiefs
- ✓ Under this system, each Maratha chief was assigned a territory which could be administered autonomously.
- ✓ As a result, many Maratha families became prominent and established their authority in different parts of India.
- ✓ As a result, many Maratha families became prominent and established their authority in different parts of India.
- ✓ They were the Gaekwad at Baroda, the Bhonsle at Nagpur, the Holkars at Indore, the Scindias at Gwalior, and the Peshwas at Poona

Balaji Baji Rao (1740-1761)

- Balaji Baji Rao succeeded his father as Peshwa at the young age of nineteen.
- The Maratha king Shahu died in 1749 without issue
- His nominated successor Ramraja was imprisoned by the Peshwa Balaji Baji Rao at Satara.
- Peshwa gave assurance to the Mughal Emperor that he would protect the Mughal Empire from internal and external enemies
- For which the Chauth of the northwest provinces and the total revenue of the Agra and Ajmer provinces would be collected by the Marathas.
- Thus when Ahmad Shah Abdali invaded India, it became the responsibility of the Marathas to protect India.
- The Marathas fought very bravely against Ahmad Shah Abdali in the Third Battle of Panipat in 1761.
- The Marathas fought very bravely against Ahmad Shah Abdali in the Third Battle of Panipat in 1761.
- Balaji Baji Rao also died on hearing the sad end of this battle.
- This battle gave a death blow to the Maratha power
- The Marathas emerged a great power in India but they could not succeed in preventing the establishment of British power in India.
- The important causes for the downfall were that there was lack of unity among the Maratha chiefs like Holkar, Scindia and Bhonsle.

THE EUROPEANS

The commercial contacts between India and Europe were very old via the land route either through the Oxus valley or Syria or Egypt.

But, the new sea route via the Cape of Good Hope was discovered by Vasco da Gama in 1498.

Ultimately, the British succeeded in establishing their rule India

The Portuguese

- ✓ The Portuguese traveller Vasco da Gama reached the port of Calicut on 17 May 1498 and he was warmly received by Zamorin the ruler of Calicut.
- ✓ The first governor of the Portuguese in India was Francis de Almeida.
- ✓ Later in 1509 Albuquerque was made the governor of the Portuguese territories in India
- ✓ In 1510, he captured Goa from the ruler of Bijapur.
- ✓ Thereafter, Goa became the capital of the Portuguese settlements in India.
- ✓ Albuquerque captured Malacca and Ceylon.
- ✓ He encouraged his countrymen to marry Indian women
- ✓ Albuquerque died in 1515 leaving the Portuguese as the strongest naval power in India.
- ✓ The successors of Albuquerque established Portuguese settlements at Daman, Salsette and Bombay on the west coast and at San Thome near Madras and Hugli in Bengal on the east coast.
- ✓ However, the Portuguese power declined in India by the end of the sixteenth century.
- ✓ They lost all their possessions in India except Goa, Diu and Daman in the next century

The Dutch

- The Dutch East India Company was established in 1602.
- The merchants of this company came to India and established their settlements at Masulipattinam, Pulicat, Surat, Karaikal, Nagapattinam, Chinsura and Kasimbazar
- In the seventeenth century they won over the Portuguese and emerged the most dominant power in European trade in the East
- Pulicat was their main centre in India and later it was replaced by Nagapattinam.
- In the middle of the seventeenth century the English began to emerge as a big colonial power.
- The Anglo-Dutch rivalry lasted for about seven decades during which period the Dutch lost their settlements to the British one by one

The English

- ✓ The English East India Company was established in 1600 and the Charter was issued by Queen Elizabeth of England.
- ✓ Captain Hawkins arrived at the royal court of Jahangir in 1609 to seek permission to establish English trading centre at Surat
- ✓ . But it was refused by the Mughal Emperor due to Portuguese pressure.
- ✓ Later in 1612, Jahangir issued a Farman (permission letter) to the English and they established a trading factory at Surat in 1613.
- ✓ Sir Thomas Roe came to India as ambassador of James I, the king of England to the Mughal court in 1615.
- ✓ He obtained permission from Jahangir to establish English trading factories in different parts of India.
- ✓ The English established their factories at Agra, Ahmadabad, Baroda and Broach by 1619.

- ✓ The English East India Company acquired Bombay from Charles II, the then king of England
- ✓ In 1639, Francis Day founded the city of Madras where the Fort St. George was built
- ✓ In 1690, an English factory was established at a place called Sutanuti by Job Charnock
- ✓ Later it developed into the city of Calcutta where Fort William was built
- ✓ Later, Calcutta became the capital of British India.
- ✓ Thus Bombay, Madras, Calcutta became three presidency towns of the English settlements in India

The French

- The French East India Company was formed in 1664 by Colbert, a Minister under Louis XIV.
- The first French factory in India was established at Surat by Francis Caron
- Later, Maracara set up a factory at Masulipattinam.
- Francois Martin founded Pondicherry in 1673.

The Danes

- ✓ Another important Danish settlement in India was Serampore in Bengal.
- ✓ Serampore was their headquarters in India
- ✓ They failed to strengthen themselves in India and they sold all their settlement in India to the British in 1845. Anglo-French Rivalry
- ✓ Both of them used the political turmoil prevalent in India as a result of the decline of the Mughal Empire in their favour and indulged in internal politics.
- ✓ The Anglo-French rivalry in India was manifest in the Carnatic region and in Bengal

The Carnatic Wars

- The downfall of the Mughal Empire led to the independence of Deccan under Nizam-ul-Mulk
- The Carnatic region also formed part of the Nizam's dominion. The ruler of the Carnatic accepted the suzerainty of the Nizam
- In 1740, the Austrian War of Succession broke out in Europe
- In that war England and France were in the opposite camps
- They came into conflict in India also
- The French governor of Pondicherry, Dupleix opened attack on the English in 1746 and thus began the First Carnatic War (1746-1748)
- The English sought help from the Nawab of Carnatic, Anwar Uddin
- But the French concluded a treaty with his rival Chanda Sahib
- The English army crushed a defeat on the French in the Battle of Adyar, near Madras.
- In the meantime, the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle was concluded in 1748 to end the Austrian Succession War. Thus the First Carnatic War came to an end.
- But the English and French continued to take opposite sides in the internal politics of India.
- This had resulted in the Second Carnatic War (1749-1754).
- This had resulted in the Second Carnatic War (1749-1754).
- The troops of these three defeated Anwar Uddin, who was with the British in the First Carnatic War, and killed him in the Battle of Ambur in 1749.
- After this victory, Muzafar Jung became the Nizam and Chanda Sahib the Nawab of Arcot.
- Muhammad Ali, son of Anwar Uddin escaped to Tiruchirappalli. The English sent troops in support of him.
- In the meantime, the British commander Robert Clive captured Arcot
- He also inflicted a severe defeat on the French at Kaveripakkam.
- He also inflicted a severe defeat on the French at Kaveripakkam.
- Meanwhile Dupleix was replaced by Godeheu as the French governor. The war came to an end by the Treaty of Pondicherry in 1754.

- The outbreak of the Seven Years War (1756-1763) in Europe led to the Third Carnatic War (1758-1763)
- Count de Lally was the commander of the French troops
- The British General Sir Eyre Coote defeated him at Wandiwash in 1760
- In the next year, Pondicherry was captured and destroyed by the British troops
- The Seven Years War came to an end by the Treaty of Paris in 1763
- The French agreed to confine its activities in Pondicherry, Karaikkal, Mahe and Yenam.
- Thus the Anglo-French rivalry came to a close with British success and French failure. T

The causes for the French failure can be summed up as follows

- ✓ Commercial and naval superiority of the English
- ✓ French had support only in the Deccan but the English had a strong base in Bengal.
- ✓ English had three important ports – Calcutta, Bombay and Madras but French had only Pondicherry
- ✓ Difference of opinion between the French Generals
- ✓ England's victory in the European wars decided the destiny of the French in India
- ✓ Establishment of British Power in Bengal
- ✓ The English ascendancy in Bengal proved to be the basis for the expansion of English rule in India
- ✓ The conflict between the Nawab of Bengal, Siraj-ud-Daula and the English led to the Battle of Plassey held on 23 June 1757
- ✓ Robert Clive, the Commander of the British troops emerged victorious by defeating the Nawab's army.
- ✓ The easy English victory was due to the treachery of Mir Jabar, the Commander of Nawab's army
- ✓ However, the victory of the British in the Battle of Plassey marked the foundation of the British rule in India
- ✓ In 1764, the English once again defeated the combined forces of the Nawab of Oudh
- ✓ The Mughal Emperor and the Nawab of Bengal in the Battle of Buxar
- ✓ The English military superiority was decisively established
- ✓ In 1765, Robert Clive was appointed as the Governor of Bengal
- ✓ The same year, the Treaty of Allahabad was concluded by which the Mughal Emperor granted the Diwani rights to the English East India Company.

Ancient India

Prehistoric (2 lakh-2.5k) BC

Prehistoric age: Roughly between 2 Lakh B.C. to 2.5k B.C. when human civilization was first started, however no exact pinpoint year.

The end of prehistoric age is roughly divided into 3 phases of Stone age:

(i) Palaeolithic age (unknown to 8k B.C.): Depended on nature for food by hunting via Stone tools.

Man called quartzite man here (since tools were made up of quartzite)

- a. Early/Lower: Hand axe, choppers, cleaver
- b. Second/Middle: flaked tools i.e. Blades, points, borers, etc
- c. Third/Upper: Blades, burins, chisels. (Ostrich egg found here) Sites:

Paleolithic sites are found in many hill slopes & river valleys but are absent in alluvial planes of Indus & Ganga

(ii) Mesolithic age (8k-4k): Hunters & Herders

- ✓ Tools more pointed (microliths); domestication of animals.
- ✓ Eg of rock art: Bhimbetka cave paintings were of Mesolithic time
- ✓ Theme: hunting, women taking out mice & dealing with small animals, rituals, family, members. (No farming since not started)
- ✓ Colour: These are stick paintings with only red & white colour. Red= plant juice + animal fat, white= plant juice + animal fat

(iii) Neolithic age (4k-2.5k):

- ✓ Food producers (1st time farming)
- ✓ Invention of Wheel;
- ✓ Discovery of fire
- ✓ Polished & grinded tools.
- ✓ Pottery started to store grains.

Place where all 3 i.e. Paleolithic, Mesoliths & Neoliths are found:

- ✓ Belan Valley, Mirzapur, UP; Middle part of Narmada.

Chalcolithic age: (1.8k-1.5k) BC

-Usage of Cu, Bronze began (Stone - Copper age) -Tools of stone, Cu & bronze.

Economy

- ✓ Barley was main crop
